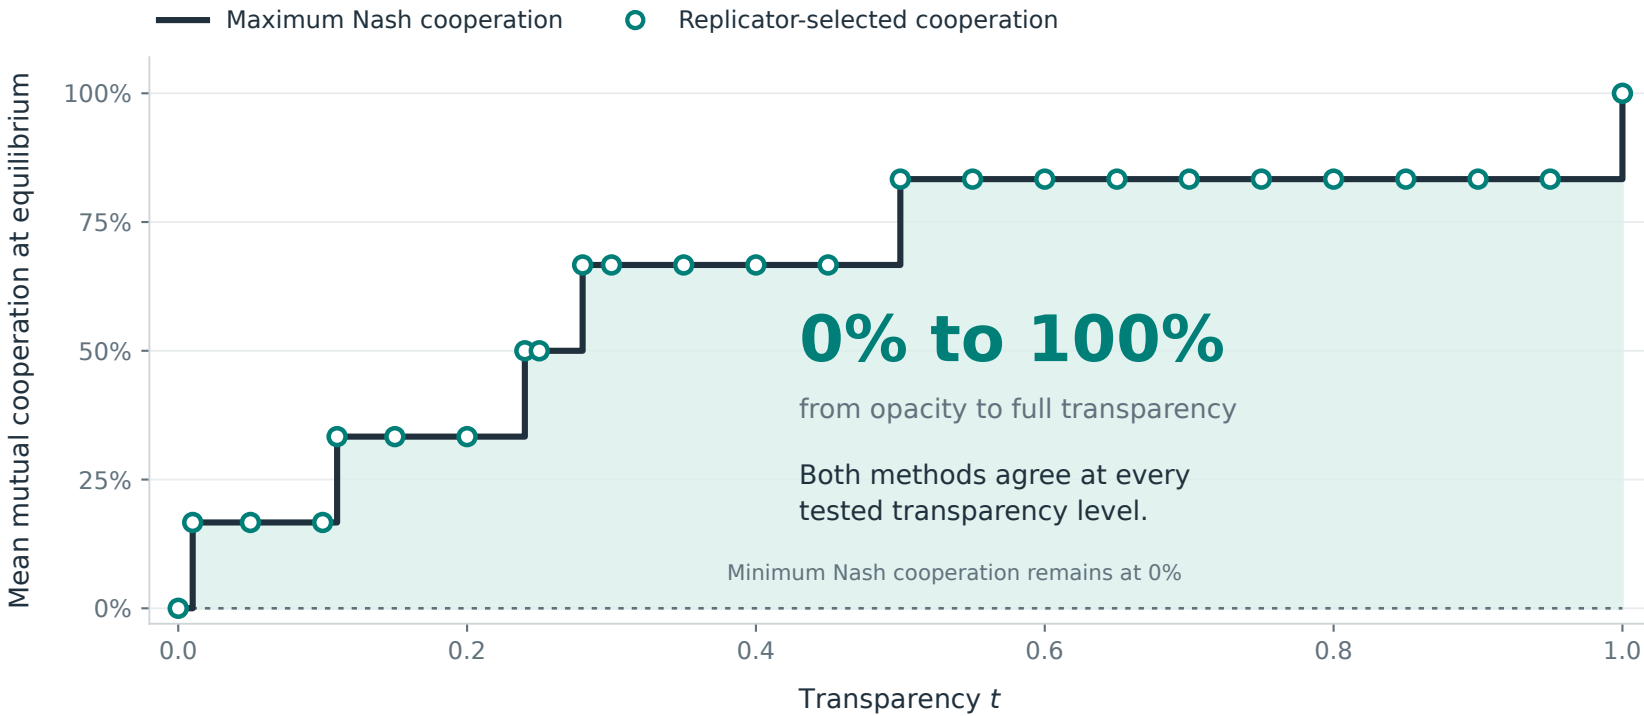
More transparency, more cooperation at equilibrium

Behavioral family | Mean across six fixed nonzero-caution settings | Exact Nash + replicator analysis



Equal weights over the six tested settings with alpha > 0; no averaging over Nash equilibria.
Steps guide the eye between 0.01-spaced samples. Replicator means use 1,000 shared starts per game.
The excluded alpha = 0 setting cooperates unconditionally at every transparency level.